

Conferences & Meetings

Orocco Pier's dedicated events facility, 'Fuchsia' is ideally suited for a wide range of conferences. We understand that by its very nature, a conference is important to the participants. For this reason we employ a dedicated events team who pay special attention to all the details.

We also have the Orocco Room available for conferences and meetings. Hopefully the information below will answer any questions you may have about our conference packages. If you have any further questions or would like a tour of our facilities, please don't hesitate to call our events team on 0870 118 1664.
