Albariño, Pulpo 32.20

Rías Baixas, Spain

Pulpo hails from the Salnés Valley region of Rías Baixas, located close to the town of Cambados. Here, on undulating hills, the Albariño vines are planted in rocky soils, where they benefit from cooling influence of the nearby Atlantic Ocean. Unoaked, the wine is a bright, pale lemon colour with hints of apple green. Aromas of white flowers, hints of peach and apricot lead to a fresh, fruity palate; it has a lovely intensity and an almost saline minerality.

They have teamed up with the British Beekeeping Association in support of fight to protect the bees. For every bottle of 'Les Abeilles' wine sold a contribution of 10p will be made directly to the BBA. 'Les Abeilles' is a classic blend of old vine Grenache, Syrah and Mourvedre. A seductive nose of red fruit and spice with a full and silky palate.

Primitivo, Feudi Salentini 32.20

Pavia, Italy

Primitivo arrived in the Salento region from Dalmatia or Croatia and from here travelled to the USA around 150 years ago – there it is called Zinfandel. The hand-harvested grapes are fermented under temperature-controlled conditions, to prevent the juice from getting too hot and losing its aromatic fruit flavours, and the wine is aged in American barriques for about 12 months. It has an elegant ruby-red colour and an intense aroma, with notes of ripe plum, cherry jam, tobacco leaf and cocoa, followed by notes of white pepper spice
